

Case Study :- Standard Handrail Edge Protection

Basic edge protection prevents both falls and also individuals from being injured during delivery and removal of recycling containers. The simple L-shape design offers simple injury prevention, however we do suggest that the 132 be used as a baseplate not the side wallfixing plate as used in this installation.

