

Case Study :- Trade Counter Product Displays

Some simple trade counter display stands that offer attractive display units used in this instance for inverter welders and space heaters. This type of construction allows for maximum use of floor space while providing an eye-catching point of sale unit for any busy trade counter. Due to Interclamps ease of use, displays can be created and modified with little effort, allowing for easy expansion to accommodate for new product lines to be shown.

Interclamp®
The right connection

BAUART
GEPRÜFT
TYPE
APPROVED

