

Case Study :- Advertising Banner

This basic sign frame was constructed using Interclamps by a well known supermarket chain to promote their offers and products outside the stores. Interclamps are commonly used in the sign industry for frames for banner advertising although in some cases on a much larger scale. Frames constructed out of Interclamps can easily be constructed to fit varying banners, so sign installers can adjust to varying installations using a common range of fittings.

 Interclamp[®]
The right connection

